"Amara Sanctuary Resort Sentosa is beautiful. Right inside here, one moment in my room last night, I heard the geckos. I feel the tropics. I feel all these stuffs. It's my home, I belong in the tropics. It's where I live, it's where I'm supposed to be." mused Peter Fonda, international Hollywood icon.

Having won the Golden Globe Award for Best Actor in a Motion Picture Drama for his critically acclaimed role in the 1998 film, Ulee's Gold, the prolific actor is also known for his tenacious talent and roles such as Wyatt in the 1968 film Easy Rider, for which he gained critical fame and more recently, the role of Byron McElroy in the 2007 remake of the 1957 film, 3:10 to Yuma.

"We are delighted to have Peter Fonda staying with us. With our collection of dining outlets and the variety of leisure activities available, we look forward to providing him with Amara's distinctive style of Asian hospitality during his time with us in Singapore." remarked Andrew Whitaker, General Manager of Amara Sanctuary Resort Sentosa.

This legendary figure is in Singapore in support of the 22nd Singapore International Film Festival and was the Guest-of-Honour for the Silver Screen Awards. The ceremony took place at 1900hrs on 24th April at Singapore's Filmgarde Cineplex, Iluma.
