Amara Sanctuary Resort Sentosa

The Beginning of Happily Ever After

Set amidst lush tropical greenery, Amara Sanctuary Resort Sentosa sits on 3.8 hectares of land that was formerly British military barracks. Overlooking breathtaking views of the South China Sea and the white sands of Palawan beach, Amara Sanctuary is a perfect blend of restored colonial architecture and contemporary design; with 10 solemnisation and wedding venues, this resort is the perfect backdrop for couples looking to say “I do”.

Tie the knot in a colonial heritage mansion in the lush gardens of the resort; starting at S$6,888++, the Larkhill Mansion is a restored British colonial home and a great venue for a memorable wedding.

Intimate and romantic, and with prices starting from $2,088++, the villas at Amara Sanctuary Resort Sentosa create the ideal setting for couples seeking an exclusive experience surrounded by their loved ones.

You could also say “I do” in the Glass Pavilion, also fondly known as the Glass Chapel, which sits surrounded by the resort’s gardens. Couples may opt for several packages depending on their wedding needs, with prices starting at S$2,288++.

The Larkhill Terrace pool provides an idyllic setting for your special day with the picturesque pool serving as a striking backdrop for couples exchanging their vows. Prices for this location start at S$3,888++.

For those seeking a grand wedding affair, the Grand Ballroom — with its pillar-less and magnificent 6-metre height ceiling — will make for an unforgettable experience. The ballroom can accommodate up to 450 guests, with dinner banquets starting at S$1,188++ per table.
